CITY OF CONCORD

In the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three.

AN ORDINANCE

Changing the number of members of the Conservation Commission from five to seven.

The City of Concord ordains as follows:

SECTION ONE: Amend Chapter 32 of the Municipal Code of Ordinances pertaining to the Conservation Commission by deleting subsection (b) thereof, and inserting the following section in its place.

(B) The Commission shall consist of seven (7) members, all citizens of Concord and all appointed by the City Manager. The City Manager shall appoint the chairman for a term of three years. In the event the City Manager appoints another member of the Commission, who has not completed his own term, to succeed to a new term as Chairman, the said member shall resign his own term and commence serving the full term as Chairman. The remaining six members of the Commission shall serve for terms of three years with the terms being set up so that two members shall be appointed each year. Any member of the Commission so appointed may, after a public hearing, if requested, be removed for cause by the City Manager. A vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as an original appointment.

SECTION TWO: This ordinance shall take effect upon its passage.
