MEDIA RELEASE

Contact: Detective Lieutenant Marc P. McGonagle   FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Criminal Investigations Division
Concord Police Department
603-225-8600   Date: April 21, 2022

The Concord Police Department and the New Hampshire State Police are currently conducting a missing persons investigation. We are seeking the public's assistance in locating the following individuals:

Name: Djeswende P. Reid   Name: Stephen L. Reid
Age: 66   Age: 67
Race: African American   Race: Caucasian
Sex: Female   Sex: Male

Stephen and his wife Djeswende "Wende" Reid were last seen by family on Sunday April 17, 2022 at a family member's home in Concord, NH. Both parties last had phone communication with family/friends on Monday April 18, 2022. The Reids were reported missing by a family member on April 20, 2022 when Stephen did not arrive for a planned event. Both of their vehicles were parked in their usual places. There is no known medical history or domestic violence for either person. Neither are believed to own any firearms. They are avid outdoors people and are known to take frequent walks along the trails near their Concord residence. Their absence and lack of communication with family/friends is uncharacteristic and their disappearance is of significant concern.

Anyone that has seen or communicated with either person in the recent days, or has information regarding the whereabouts of Djeswende and/or Stephen Reid is asked to please contact:

The Concord Police Department at (603) 225-8600, or tips can be submitted anonymously by contacting the Concord Regional Crimeline at (603) 226-3100. Tips can also be submitted online through the Crimeline website at: www.concordregionalcrimeline.com, or text message TIP234 and your message to CRIMES (274637).   Crimeline awards cash to anyone whose information directly leads to the whereabouts of the Reid's. All tips remain anonymous.
