FRAUD ALERT

CONCORD, NH – On March 12, 2024, the Concord Police Department was made aware that individuals are calling residents of Concord and the surrounding areas claiming to be Concord Police Officers. These individuals claim that fines are owed, jury duty was missed, or court appearances were missed. The individuals advise that these fines need to be paid immediately to avoid being arrested. The individuals are attempting to get unsuspecting victims to pay with credit cards or other forms of payment.

These calls are not legitimate. No law enforcement agency would contact anyone in this manner and accept payment to clear citations or violations over the phone. If you have received a similar call, please contact your local law enforcement agency to report the incident.

The Concord Police Department is asking anyone with information regarding this incident to please contact the Concord Police Department at (603-225-8600) or to contact the Concord Regional Crime line at (603-226-3100) www.concordregionalcrimeline.com.
