Date: January 16, 2025

Shooting at Rollins Park

Concord, NH – On October 7, 2024 at approximately 8:45 p.m., Concord Police Officers were dispatched to Rollins Park to investigate a Shots Fired call for service. Several area residents reported hearing multiple gun shots in the area. All involved subjects had left the area prior to Officers' arrival at the park. A subsequent investigation led to search warrants at several locations near the park. One involved subject was transported to Concord Hospital with a non-life-threatening wound as a result of being struck by a bullet.

On January 15, 2025 the Concord Police Department arrested a subject on charges related to this incident. The Concord Police Department arrested:

SAIGE LAROCHE (AGE 18)
CONCORD, NH

Laroche was charged with the following offenses:

Accomplice to Robbery (Felony)
Conspiracy to Commit Robbery (Felony)
Falsifying Physical Evidence (Felony)

Laroche was held without bail pending his arraignment on January 16, 2025 at 11 a.m. at Concord District Court.
