FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: March 28, 2025

(CPD # 25-10488)

CONCORD, NH – On March 25, 2025, as part of the Operation Granite Shield initiative, members of the Concord Police Department, the New Hampshire State Police, Homeland Security Investigations, and the US Postal Inspection Service executed a search warrant at a Joffre Street residence after receiving information from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police about illegal narcotics being shipped through the mail.

During the search, investigators seized a quantity of suspected fentanyl, methamphetamine, and MDMA in addition to a firearm, body armor, and ammunition.

One person was arrested on an unrelated bench warrant. Arrested was:

Colin Dowling, Age 37
Concord, NH

This investigation remains open and ongoing. The Concord Police Department is asking anyone with information pertaining to this incident to contact the Problem Oriented Policing Unit at 603-225-8600 or popunit@concordpolice.com.
