CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

CONCORD, NH – In the month of December 2024 the Concord Police Department received numerous calls for service reporting criminal mischief to a Satanic Temple holiday display located on the sidewalk in front of the NH State House located on N. Main St. in Concord. Over several days and nights, the damaged display was repaired by citizens associated with the display and re-damaged by various individuals thereafter.

Over the course of several months, the Concord Police Department investigated these incidents. The suspects in this case were identified and arrest warrants were issued.

On March 27, 2025 the Concord Police Department arrested the following subjects:

JOHN CAMDEN, AGE 41
CONCORD, NH

Criminal Mischief (Class B Misdemeanor)

DAVID PETRIEL, AGE 31
WEARE, NH

Criminal Mischief (Class B Misdemeanor)

On March 28, 2025 the Concord Police Department arrested:

JOSHUA CUMMINGS, AGE 33
CONCORD, NH

Criminal Mischief (Two Counts) (Class B Misdemeanor)

Camden, Petriel and Cummings were booked and processed at the Concord Police Department. All three subjects were released on personal recognizance bail. Petriel and Cummings are to appear at Concord District Court on April 28, 2025 at 8:15 a.m. for arraignment. Camden is to appear at Concord District Court on May 19, 2025 at 8:15 a.m. for arraignment.
