SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

Concord – On September 16, 2025 the Concord Police Department received a report of a suspicious male subject in the area of East Side Dr. and Burns Ave. in Concord, NH. It was reported that a thirteen-year-old girl was followed home by a male subject after getting off of the afternoon school bus at the intersection of East Side Dr. and Burns Ave.

The male subject was described as being approximately 5'3" with a tan complexion, wearing a blue tank-top shirt and camouflage pants. It is believed that the subject was walking on foot in the area at the time of the incident.

The Concord Police Department is investigating this matter and has located the attached photograph from local video surveillance cameras. The pictured subject is a Person of Interest in this incident.

This appears to be an isolated incident and there is no danger to public related to this incident at this time. This incident remains an open and active investigation. The Concord Police Department requests that anyone with information related to this incident or with video surveillance footage in the area of East Side Dr. and Burns Ave. on September 16, 2025 at approximately 4:00 P.M., please contact investigators at (603)225-8600.

Anyone who has information relative to any criminal incident is asked to call the Concord Regional Crimeline at (603) 226-3100, or submit information online through the Crimeline website at: www.concordregionalcrimeline.com, or text message TIP234 and your message to CRIMES (274637). Crimeline awards cash to anyone whose information leads to the arrest and indictment of criminals. All tips remain anonymous.
