MISSING PERSON

CONCORD, NH – The Concord Police Department is investigating the whereabouts of a missing person:

RYAN O'DONNELL, AGE 44
BOW, NH

Ryan O'Donnell was reported missing to the Concord Police Department on Friday, August 1, 2025. Ryan was last seen by a family member who dropped him off in the vicinity of Hall Street and Water Street in Concord on Sunday, July 27, 2025. Ryan was known to frequent the homeless community at different time periods, but he has not been seen or heard from since that date.

Detectives have conducted multiple searches of the South End area where Ryan was last seen, and canvassed known homeless encampments throughout the city, with no signs of Ryan found. In the past, Ryan has been known to utilize the railroad tracks as a walking route. Concord PD is requesting property owners along the railroad tracks in Concord, Bow, and Canterbury, to check their private property, to include any sheds or outbuildings, for any signs of Ryan O'Donnell.

Please see the attached image of Ryan O'Donnell, taken in 2024, for a close approximation of his appearance. Ryan is now 44-years-old, and is described as a white male, approximately 5'08, medium build, blue eyes, brown hair, last seen with a full beard (dark-colored).

This investigation continues and the Concord Police Department is asking anyone with information pertaining to Ryan's whereabouts to contact Detective Steven Carter of the Criminal Investigations Division at 603-225-8600.
