FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CPD #: 22-24640-OF
Date: June 22, 2022

On June 19, 2022 at approximately 5:58 p.m., a Concord Police Officer was sent to the Walmart Store located in Concord, NH to investigate a theft. It was reported that a vendor for the store had accidentally put his phone down. When he realized this, he went back to the area where he left it but the phone was no longer there.

Loss Prevention Associates were able to review video footage. The video footage showed that at around 4:41 p.m., an unidentified male walked by the cell phone, looked down at it, and then picked it up. The unidentified male then exited the store a short time later and walked towards Loudon Road. It is believed the male did not get into a vehicle.

The male suspect wore khakis, a black hat, a dark sweatshirt, carried a black backpack, and had grey hair.
